

The first day of Ramadan begins when the new moon of this month is sighted. We must remember that, according to the Islamic calendar, a new moon marks the beginning of a new Islamic month.

We start the month by offering the Tarawih prayer, which is offered straight after the Isha prayer.

This is an optional prayer and you do not have to offer it; however, we must remember that Ramadan is a month of many opportunities, and one of the opportunities of gaining lots of rewards from Allâh is by offering the Tarawih prayer..

Surat Al-Qadr describes a very important night, a blessed and a beneficial night. We should try our very best to take advantage of this night and worship Allāh in any way we can and as much as we can.

Colour all the true shapes BLUE and false shapes GREEN

*Laylatul Qadr
falls in the month of Ramadan*

*Surat Al-Qadr
describes a
very blessed
and rewarding
night*

The Ruh ( ) does not descend with the Angels on this night.

*On this night,
the Angels descend
with mercy.*

*The night
of Al-Qadr
should be
searched
for
in the 1st
ten nights
of Ramadan*

*By warshipping Allah on the night of Al-Qadr, we get rewards for warshipping Allâh
for a 1000 manths.*

Eid is the celebration of the Muslims.
Eid comes twice a year. Once after the blessed month of Ramadan which is called Eidul-Fitr,
and the other comes after the Hajj,
which is called Eidul-Adha.

Link each sentence
with its correct ending.
The first one is done for you.

Eidul-Adha comes once a year and...

end of Ramadan.

*Eidul-Fitr
marks the....*

*offer the Eid Salat
and listen to the Khutbah.*

*Eid begins when
a new moon...*

*takes place
after the Hajj.*

On the day of Eid, we should take a bath and wear...

*"Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar,
La ilaha illallahu, wallahu Akbar.
Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar,
wa lillahir-hamd.*

*We should attend
the Masjid to...*

*new clothes and
look our best.*

We should recite the following prayer...

*"Ta Qabal'lallahu
minna wa min kum."*

We should greet our family and friends with the Du'aa,

*is sighted. A new moon symbolises the
begining of a new month.*

Surat Ad-Duha

(The morning light)

1. By the bright morning light. 2. And by the night when all is still. 3. Your Lord has not forgotten you, nor is He displeased with you. 4. And the hereafter is better for you than the present. 5. And soon your Lord will give you (all good) and you will be well-pleased. 6. Did He not find you an orphan and gave you shelter? 7. Did He not find you lost, and showed you the way? 8. And he found you poor and made you rich? 9. Therefore, do not treat the orphan with oppression. 10. And the beggar, don't send him away (empty-handed). 11. And as for your Lord's beautiful gifts, speak of them (to others).

Finally, the Surah ends by advising us to show gratitude to Allâh for His favours and bounties upon us.

This is one of the reasons the Prophet ( ﷺ ) used to read the following Du'a:

"And make us grateful for Your bounties; make us praise You for them; make us admit Your favours and shower them on us."

Whenever the Prophet (ﷺ) would go and teach people the truth about Islam, Abu Lahab would follow him and say to him that if what the Prophet (ﷺ) was saying was true, then he would give up his wife, children and wealth on the Day of Judgement, so he could be forgiven and not punished.

However, Allah says in the Surah that neither Abu Lahab's family nor his wealth will be of benefit to him.

